The first day of processing is the day after your package arrives in our office, except in the case of pre-arranged same day service. Processing times listed above are business days, not calendar days. They are the times the Embassies need to process your visa. As a third party, we will do everything possible to get your visa to you when you need it, but ultimately each embassy retains the sole authority to issue a visa. We are not responsible for any delays caused by any Embassy either due to additional documents required by that Embassy or by an increase in the amount of time they take to process the applications. Please allow extra time for shipping and handling.
